GOVERNOR PINCHOT OF PENNSYLVANIA TO MEET COAL MEN

Named by President to Act as Mediator and Miners and Union Officials Have Accepted
Invitation to a Conference Monday—
President of Mine Workers Remains Firm

(By the Associated Press)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 25.—Miners' union officials and mine operators' representatives accepted today the request of the governor of Pennsylvania for a conference at Harrisburg on Monday, in an endeavor to exhaust every means of preventing a suppression of Anthracite mining next week. At the same time the union machinery was steadily at work upon its object of making the shutdown effective and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers took occasion to repeat in emphatic words the union ultimatum, that no arbitration offers now would serve to avert the consequences of a failure of the employers in the industry to grant wage increases and other demands.

The union leaders would meet with Governor Pinchot, Mr. Lewis said, their attitude would be unchanged.

For the operators it was said their answer to the governor's request was "cordial" and practically all of the members of the policy committee which has conducted negotiations over the wage contract left town early in order to reach Harrisburg before the Monday session. Mr. Lewis gave out two documents which fully illustrated the union position. One was a copy of the order to suspend mining.

Wilson

In a letter to John W. Davis, president of the American Bar Association, Mr. Breckinridge as a member of the association expressed regret that Lord Birkenhead had been invited to address the organization at its annual convention in Minneapolis and said he hoped "if it proves necessary for him to fulfill his engagement to speak, it may be intimated to him that the expression of such opinions concerning a great American statesman is distasteful and intolerable to any self-respecting American audience."

Lord Birkenhead, in Saratoga today for the races, declined to comment on the criticism of his address in which he asserted that Mr. Wilson went to the peace conference with hope as his principal equipment, that the world was not ready for his idealism.

SEVEREST TEST IN HISTORY IS MET BY PLANES

Trans-Continental Air
Mail Route Found
Feasible

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—One of the most severe aircraft tests in the history of aviation was completed today when mail planes dropped out of the sky at New York and San Francisco and disgorged their burdens of letters. Since last Tuesday the airplanes have roared across the continent spanning the country eight times in less than five days, four times from east to west and four times from west to east, in testing the feasibility of carrying mail between the Atlantic and Pacific by continuous air route.

During the time of the trans-continental flights eastward and westward, the planes operated on a definite schedule of a little over 24 hours without an accident and in relaying the mail from coast to coast flew at night over a lighted airway from Chicago to Cheyenne.

To Discuss Future
Postal officials declared even before the tests were completed that the practicability of the project had been proven and announced that a conference will soon be held to determine the future of trans-continental air mail service. The planes that landed today, finished the fourth trans-continental journey started yesterday morning. The eastbound plane landed at New York at 1:17 o'clock having made the trip from San Francisco in 26 hours and 17 minutes three minutes behind the record for a trans-continental flight established by the mail plane landing in New York yesterday. The westbound plane landed at San Francisco at 1:44 P. M., having spanned the continent in 29 hours and 40 minutes, two more minutes than was taken by the plane landing at the golden gate on Friday.

Record Night Flight
Aside from breaking the record for a trans-continental flight, a record for the longest night flight, was broken in connection with the tests when Pilot Jack Knight last night flew from Cheyenne to Buchan, Michigan, nearly a thousand miles away when he received a telegram that his father was not expected to live and received permission to use a mail plane in rushing to his bedside. The race then the time over the lighted airway between Cheyenne and Chicago, was won by the pilot who arrived at Buchan, this morning to find his father, Dr. M. M. Knight still alive.

PORKERS HIT NEW HIGH PRICES AND HELP THE FARMER

Realization of Fact to Bring Restored Confidence

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Farmers complaining about the price of wheat realized today that the hog market farm product, is still their friend when the porkers made a new top for the year at $9.25 at the week end on a 20 to 25 cent advance.

The 160 and 230 pound class of butchers sold at from $9.00 to $9.25 while the 250 pound class brought from $8.50 to $8.90. Owing to a restored confidence in producing circles the bulge was not expected to result in an oversupply and a reduction in prices during the coming week.

Those watching the increase in hog prices referred to the survey of the United States Department of Agriculture showing the price level for the ten principal crops of the farmer including four fifths of the value of all farm products had advanced 16 percent during the last twelve months, farmers being paid for these crops at current prices 33 percent more than in 1913.

ANTHRACITE IN LARGE AMOUNTS NOW IN SIGHT

Is Estimate of Anthracite Bureau of Information

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Thirty-two million tons of hard coal in domestic sizes will be in the line of consumers or in storage awaiting distribution by September 1, the date of the threatened suspension of mining, the anthracite bureau of information estimated today. This figure represents roughly 45 percent of the seventy million tons of fresh mined anthracite consumed by the 48 states, Canada and Mexico each year. It represents 35 percent of a total annual production of ninety million tons, including coal sold at the mines, sold to the government or railways or mined by the Hudson Coal company which does not publish data on its business.

Since April 1, the mines have far exceeded all records for production, according to the anthracite bureau. Since June 1 they have averaged 2,000,000 tons a week, or at the rate of 104,000,000 tons a year.

"We are far ahead of the usual schedule," said a statistician of the bureau. "We are ahead of customary shipments not only in New York but in Boston, Minneapolis, Chicago, Duluth all all thru the northwest."

(By the Associated Press)
HILLSBORO, Ill., Aug. 25.—The last of the ten units of the Illinois National Guard which have been on duty here as a result of a strike at the plant of the American Zinc company departed tonight over the Illinois Traction System. They included Troop E, of Urbana, Ill., of Danville and G. of Springfield.

"I do not believe there will be anymore trouble," Major Stiles said, "but the department thinks it best that I remain at least three days longer."

Rumors of threatened violence after the troops leave have been current here for some time and it is believed to have led to the decision to retain the officers here.

Edward Carbine, labor organizer whose efforts to form a union at the company's plant is alleged to have precipitated the trouble tonight addressed a large gathering of miners and union sympathizers, urging them to plead the union cause.

ATTEMPTED PARADE OF KLAN RESULTS IN SERIOUS FIGHT

One Man is Killed and Another Fatally Wounded with Many Injured when Parade
Blocked by Citizens—Estimated 10,000
Klansmen Gathered—No Parade Permit

(By the Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 26.—Two men were arrested early this (Sunday) morning in connection with the killing of an unidentified klansman in rioting at Carnegie, a suburb, last night. In their automobile when arrested, was found a shotgun and pistol, the police said. Their names were withheld.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 26.—One man was killed, another was probably fatally wounded and an unknown number of others were injured at midnight Saturday when citizens of Carnegie, a suburb, and robed members of the Ku Klux Klan clashed at the Glendale Bridge over Chartiers Creek. Quiet had not been restored two hours later, but all available deputy sheriffs, policemen and Allegheny county detectives were patrolling the streets. A motorcycle squad had been stationed at the edge of the borough to prevent any further attempt by the klansmen to enter the town and officers expressed the belief that they soon would have the situation in hand.

The man killed, who was wearing a white robe, has not been identified and at the morgue it was stated there was nothing on his body to indicate his identity. It was, however, covered with tattoo marks.

The most seriously injured was Steve Zarzobek who, his friends say, was discharged a few months ago from the regular army after six years service. He was a member of the party opposing the parade and was shot thru the abdomen.

William Williams, another ex-soldier and member of the opposing force, was picked up and hurled into Chartiers Creek.

INFLATION OF CURRENCY NOT DUE TO BANKS

German Banker Defends His Policy as President

(By the Associated Press)
BERLIN, Aug. 25.—Dr. Rudolf Havenstein appeared today before the central committee of the reichstag and defended his policy as president of the reichsbank at considerable length contending the bank was not blameable for the continuously growing inflation. The main cause for this inflation he said was the unchecked increase in the floating debt, which on August 1, aggregated 194,000,000,000 marks of which 177,000,000,000 were in the reichsbank's coffers. These amounts represented actual financial credits which had to be renewed again and again forming a decided factor in the increase of note circulation.

Dr. Havenstein is reported to have announced a new program more in harmony with the principles which the government laid down for the regulation of Germany's future economic financial policy. Thus far Dr. Havenstein's statement appears to have failed to put an end to rumors that his resignation as head of the reichsbank is imminent. His reputed change in policy has caused much surprise the more so as the government was believed to be unanimous in desiring its retirement.

LABORER ON ROAD GANG UNEARTHS A YOUNG GOLD MINE

(By the Associated Press)
HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 25.—Lee Hauser, 28, a laborer, was working with a gang on a road near here when his pick struck a loose metal object. Another stroke and a bright piece of gold—a spread eagle—appeared. With this incentive, Hauser plied his strokes vigorously and soon unearthed a tin box about the size of a large cigar box full of gold coins, varying in denominations from $5 to $20. The box contained about one thousand dollars.

Found in the road not private property, Hauser says, "findings are keepings."

Nothing is known here of reports that the war department would investigate the case, believing the gold to be part of the money Grover C. Bergdoll is said to have buried in this vicinity several years ago.

Sometimes it looks as if the leading American industry were conventions.

A magazine is publishing a series of articles by well known women as to which age is best and happiest. After all is said and done, if the right spirit and attitude are maintained the age one is in is best.

When all the statistics are in, perhaps the low price of wheat will not be so bad, after all. Figures recently published show that wheat makes up only from six to 10 per cent of the total of agricultural products of the country. The wheat loss in value by comparison with last year is estimated at about $60,000,000, and the estimate on the increased value of the corn crop is now $700,000,000. Other grains also show increases. To judge fairly all products must be taken into account in making an estimate of conditions.

THE BUSINESS YEAR

Business is said to be picking up as the autumn buying begins. This is a phenomenon observed almost every year.

Summer naturally brings dullness. This year things have not really been dull, but only so compared with the great business activity of the spring months. With hot weather and summer vacations coming to an end, with people turning from relaxation to work and children from idleness to school, with crops moving and the farming population resuming its buying power, of course business improves.

The business year really begins in September.

WHEN TRAFFIC HINDERS

TRADE Here is a suggestion from another city which might well be given consideration.

For years city merchants have been blessing the automobile because it brought so many new customers to their doors. The greater range of private transportation has increased their selling area and volume of sales. As advertising has been extended, to attract patrons from afar, it has been observed that most of them came in their own cars. That was fine. But there are signs of the tide beginning to turn the other way. For the multiplication of automobiles has so jammed the business sections with traffic lines and parked cars that visitors find it harder and harder to find a place to stop in the shopping district. The result is, in cities most affected by this regular blockade, that the visitors drive away disgusted, resolved to do their shopping by mail order, or where there is less traffic difficulty.

This particular trade problem has arisen so far, as a rule, only in the larger cities. But it is developing rapidly in smaller cities that have not foreseen the peril and taken measures in time to broaden their business thoroughfares, establish adequate parking facilities and do everything possible to facilitate motor traffic. Business activity and real estate values are destined to suffer in any city that fails to look ahead in this matter.

BOOST THE COUNTY FAIR.

Morgan county residents are to have a rare privilege this week in attending the county fair. The results of such a display of the products and enterprises of the county as will be on the grounds this week can be nothing if not beneficial. The educational value of the various exhibits is beyond question, and the opportunities for exchange of ideas and for social intercourse among residents of the county will be great.

At the fair people from one part of the county will have a chance to see what they do in other places. The suggestions for improvement in breeds of livestock, in quality of farm products will meet the visitor in every tent. There is something for everybody at the fair; the children's department offers instructive exhibits for the boys and girls; the women's department stimulates healthy rivalry in the domestic arts; the departments for stock and products of Morgan county farms make for general improvement of farm life and its results in the county.

Morgan county people should boost the fair to the limit, if only for the purpose of their own self improvement and to secure suggestions to increase their own wealth. However, there is the broader motive of county betterment, the desire to have Morgan county producing the best crops, the best cattle, the best hogs, and the best of everything in the state. By attending the fair and boosting it to the limit, we broaden ourselves, strengthen the position of the fair among the other county fairs of the state, and build the ladder on which the entire county can mount to first rank in the quality of its products and the solidarity of its interests.

IMPORTANT INVENTIONS.

What are the most important inventions and discoveries of the century just past — the most wonderful century in material achievement of all the ages? A prominent scientist gives this list:

The cast iron plow, the cotton gin, the high pressure steam engine, the screw propeller, the electro magnet, the telegraph, vulcanized rubber, the sewing machine, the electric locomotive, the airplane, celluloid, the quadruplex telegraph, the telephone, the talking machine, the typewriter, the incandescent lamp, the trolley car, the automatic knot-tying harvester machine, electric furnace reduction, the transparent photograph film, electric welding, calcium carbide, carburetor, electrolytic alkali machine, the motion picture machine, disc plows, high speed steel, the airplane, wireless telegraphy.

Any well informed person might add a few items of his own. No two lists would be likely to agree, because human notions of what is "important" differ so widely.

The idea back of the list printed above was "practical value to the race," and there can hardly be any better criterion.

It is noteworthy that no medical discoveries find places on the scientist's list of most important inventions judged by "practical value to the human race." How about conquering smallpox and yellow fever, not to mention anaesthetics, making possible modern surgery?

GOV. BROUGH HAS UNUSUAL RECORD

Ex-Governor Brough of Arkansas, who is in Jacksonville to fill chautauqua engagements, is a very interesting man. He served as governor of his state for two terms, from 1917 to 1921. Like Woodrow Wilson he stepped from university educational work into political life. Gov. Brough took his collegiate work at Mississippi college and then his law course at Oxford university in Mississippi. His three years of work for the Ph. D. degree at Johns Hopkins university was from 1895 to 1898. During that period he held the fellowship of political economy. Then for a three year period Gov. Brough was instructor in political economy in Mississippi college and afterward for 12 years held a like chair at the University of Arkansas.

It is worth mentioning in this connection that the records show that three governors who have held the Ph. D. degree, ex-President Woodrow Wilson, former governor of New Jersey; Gov. Drumbaugh of Pennsylvania, and Gov. Brough.

From the chautauqua platform this morning Gov. Brough will deliver a lay sermon from the theme: "We Beheld His Glory." It will be an appeal for the enlightenment of the God and Christ of human history in the home, in national life, Morgan county people who have heard this speaker cannot fail to have some appreciation of his unusual literary background.

The wealth of knowledge that can come from intimate contact with books is his and additional value is given by his broad experience in the world of the practical. Some indication of the spirit of this southern Democrat is suggested in the fact that after finishing the coming week of chautauqua engagements and making a Labor Day address at Little Rock, he will immediately enter upon the task of raising $150,000 among people of Arkansas for a Warren G. Harding memorial hospital. This is to be a unit of a great hospital that the Baptists are building in Arkansas.

FAMOUS BAND WAS HEARD AT WINCHESTER

Bachman's Million Dollar Band Was Attraction at Final Day of Chautauqua—Other Notes from Winchester

Winchester, Aug. 25.—Bachman's Million Dollar Band Saturday gave two of the finest concerts ever heard here. A large audience was present at the afternoon program and a still larger number assembled in the evening. The audiences were very enthusiastic over the programs furnished by the band both afternoon and evening. The local chautauqua was indeed fortunate in securing the coming of this high grade aggregation of musicians.

The 1923 chautauqua goes down in history as a success in a financial way as well as in every other respect. This year's program was the best in the history of the organization, and it has been unanimously decided to have even a bigger and better chautauqua next year.

A number of people from near by towns attended the final day's sessions.

News Notes

The deceased was well known in Winchester, having a number of relatives in this community. Mrs. Eliza Taylor of this community was a sister, as was the late Mrs. Charles Smithson.

The many friends of William Wainwright will be glad to know that he is now improving and was able to sit up for a time Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bagshaw and daughter, Mrs. James Edmonson, and Mrs. Julia Mueller will motor to St. Louis early Sunday morning to visit relatives a few days.

Mrs. C. J. Rabe of Martinsburg, Ohio, is enjoying a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elder.

The annual Riggston burgoon picnic has been postponed to Sept. 5th.

A MODEL CORNER LOT. The yard at Will Heint's home in South Jacksonville occasions a great deal of favorable comment. Mr. Heint's house is located at the north side of his extended frontage but the lot to the north is kept in just as fine condition as the remainder of the property. Flower beds are appropriately located and the turf is constantly kept in good condition. An example is furnished of how a vacant lot can be made a beauty spot instead of damaging the appearance of adjoining property.

STRONG ADDRESS MADE BY FARM BUREAU HEAD

Hundreds of Farmers Gather to Hear Talk of President Bradfute at Chautauqua Tent.

Hundreds of farmers gathered at Jacksonville chautauqua yesterday to hear O. E. Bradfute, National President of the American Farm Bureau Federation. The speaker was the guest of honor at a dinner given at noon for the presidents of all farm bureaus in the 20th district by Charles Black at the Peacock Inn.

Mr. Bradfute said in part: "Most farmers do not realize how great the industry really is. Why the agricultural industry could buy out any three other industries and have plenty of money left. And yet some farmers say they don't think much of big business. They also say — what have farmers in common? How can the New York farmer and the Texas farmer have anything in common. But the farmer is one of the best read of men. By his reading he finds that he does have interests the same as his brother in other climes. He is confronted with the universal problems of marketing, taxation, and transportation. In some quarters the idea persists that the farmer is necessarily a crude individual. Within a radius of two miles of my farm in Ohio there are 20 college graduates, all working farms."

Wheat.

"The low price of wheat is creating quite an excitement in the country at present. Some farmers are declaring that on dollar wheat they cannot make both ends meet. And yet do you know that potatoes, eggs and hay are all below wheat in buying power. Wheat has been greatly exaggerated in importance. In the United States last year the wheat crop brought $725,000,000, while hogs brought nine hundred million; cattle a billion and dairy products a billion and a quarter dollars."

Price Fixing.

A loud rumor is being made for the President to call a special session of congress to fix the price of wheat. These people think that Uncle Sam should set wheat at from one and a half to three dollars per bushel, depending on the ideas of the individual. No sooner would such a bill be formed than the amendments would set in. The potato man and the hay man would ask, and they would have as much right as the wheat farmer, to have the price of their product fixed by law. When all agricultural prices had been set the other industries would begin their clamor for the same false panacea. Where would such a course lead? The idea is nothing less than absurd. What we of the Farm Bureau Federation have recommended is that the farmers hold a portion of their wheat to allow the market to recover. Fifteen days ago our adherents began this system and already the wheat market is more stable.

The causes of our wheat depression are not many. The chief one is that Europe is without resources and cannot buy as she did. It is true that last year she took nearly her usual amount of wheat from us, but we must remember that there is no reason why Europe should pay us more for our wheat than she pays South America for hers. We must therefore meet the South American competition and lower our export price and rely for the present on the home market.

Marketing.

"In every business two departments are essential, manufacturing and marketing. The goods must not only be produced but must be sold. Everyone knows that the American farmer is the best producer in the world—but farmers, as salesmen, you ain't worth the space you take up."

If Henry Ford should keep on producing his 7,000 automobiles a day and simply run them out in the streets of Detroit until he had the streets filled, and would then say here are my Fords, that I make the cheapest and best of any car, come and buy at your own price—he would be acting as you and then take any price that is offered you."

The Farm Bureau Federation is doing its best to induce farmers to co-operate in marketing their crops. In Ohio they raise mighty fine apples. They pick the crop, dump it in a freight car, without sorting and grading of any kind, and ship it to New York. The commission man in New York must hire high priced labor and a high priced warehouse to do the sorting. This naturally makes the farmers' price less. These same Ohio farmers got together and organized an association. They graded their apples, put them up in boxes and shipped them to market. The buyer looked at them, remarking on the uniformity of style and color, and asked if they had any more. They replied that they had plenty, and said that their price would be high. The commission man, knowing that the produce was uniform and good, placed a big order at a dollar a barrel above the market top. The same method was followed by sheep growers with the same result. I hope I have shown you the way. Co-operation means success.

Other Program Features. The first place on both morning and afternoon bills yesterday were held by the Apollo Concert Co. In the afternoon performance the audience was introduced to the Apollophone, an instrument designed and used by the Apollo company only. It is a hybrid and is a combination of the Xylophone, Marimba, Natumba, and Nabimba. Besides numbers on this instrument the company entertained with bassoon, cornet and saxophone. A saxophone quartet was one of the features of the program. A few vocal numbers were also presented.

The company has been playing for 17 years, according to the manager, Mr. Arthur Wells, and has played in every country on earth. It is just back from a tour of eastern Canada.

Frank C. Armitage was indeed a treat to local chautauquans. He is a past master in the art of makeup and quick change. The act was a series of representations of the characters of Dickens and other novelists. Those familiar with Dickens' loveable characters were especially pleased with the act, but all enjoyed it much.

CHAUTAUQUA NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Fletcher, who have been so ably directing physical training classes and making lectures here for the past week, wound up their engagement in a blaze of glory by presenting an exhibition of their drills in the big tent yesterday morning. In the afternoon they left for an engagement in eastern Illinois.

The first section of the probationary class of Passavant hospital was entertained recently at dinner by Miss Ida Vennor, superintendent of the hospital, in the hospital tent on the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. George Daniels, and daughter, Mrs. Lucile Daniels Kirby, of Petersburg, were chautauqua visitors yesterday. They are guests of Mrs. George Gundy west of the city.

A party was given yesterday by Francis Plouer at the tent of his parents in honor of Master Gene Fitch who will leave soon for his home in Cambridge, Mass., after spending the summer here.

The young people gathered at ten thirty yesterday morning, and after enjoying a swim had dinner at the Plouer tent.

Those present were the Misses Frances Cody, Elizabeth James, Zoe Marshall, Lucy Jones, Anna Margaret Vannier, Barbara Kennedy and Dorothy Graham, and Messrs. Gene Fitch, Francis Plouer, Edward Baxter, Kenneth Danksin, Louie McLaughlin, Carl McLaughlin and Andrew Rogers.

GREAT PROSPECTS IN GRAIN AREAS

W. C. Bradish has just returned from a two weeks trip for the Cloverleaf Insurance Co., in Michigan, Indiana and Northern Illinois. Mr. Bradish traveled largely by automobile and was very much interested in noting the condition of farm crops. In the wheat and barley areas there was an immense yield and the prospect for corn was never better.

Mr. Bradish said yesterday that from the present indications a part of Indiana will have a corn yield fully equal to the Illinois average.

What Happens If You Die Leaving No Will

If you die intestate, your property will be divided according to the laws of this State and an administrator will be ap-

There are many disadvantages to this course, for example: The laws of the State are made to apply generally to all cases—not to any one in particular. They may distribute your property to parties
you would not care to reward and may impose hardships on those you cherish most.

The safe course is to make a will under the guidance of a competent attorney,

COUNTY FAIR EXPECTED TO DRAW 50,000 PEOPLE

Four Thousand Entries Are on the Exhibit Lists—Every Foot of Space is Taken by Concessions and Exhibits—Interest of People Unexcelled in Morgan County's History

Fifty thousand people are expected to attend the greatest Fair Exposition ever held in this section of the state at the Morgan County Fair Grounds this week. The fair, the largest of its kind ever held in this district, will far surpass any community affair in the history of Morgan County, if interest of exhibitors and concession men is to be considered.

Absolutely every available foot of space has been sold by the Association and demands for further spaces are being rejected hourly. Only the very finest in all lines have been allowed to place on the grounds and absolutely all gambling has been prohibited. Telegrams are arriving at the Association hourly from concession men all over the country in an attempt to secure privileges but the same reply always returns over the wire, "sold out." The Fair this year is advertised thoroughly all over the state of Illinois, in dozens of newspapers and by posters, and a great deal of national advertising has also been done.

One of the surprising features of the fair is the enormous amount of entries that are being made in all departments. Every display tent promises to be filled to the limit with displays of all descriptions and of the very best of the central west can supply. Entries in the livestock department are arriving from miles around, reaching into other states. Over sixty entries in the fancy work department were received from an Ohio lady, while dozens of others are entered from remote corners of the state. It is expected that the exhibits of pure bred hogs will be one of the three best ever shown in the central United States and by far the best ever shown in Western Illinois.

Many Free Attractions

The free attractions of the fair this year are far from cheap vaudeville affairs. The Lew's Musical company ranks among the best of its kind on tour in the country. This company will perform in front of the Grandstand every evening and a beautiful special lighting effect will be arranged for them with special scenery. The company consists of twenty-eight pieces, many of them musicians of national fame. The concerts are expected to be a credit to the Fair. The Ardells Dog Show is known almost to every man, woman and child as one of the finest trained dog shows in the entire country. This company consists of dogs of all breeds and types, trained to almost human intelligence. They will give an entirely different performance every afternoon and evening on the specially arranged stage in front of the grandstand.

For thrills, the Fair is expected to live up to the old reputation of Morgan County and to be second to the state fair.
The pole balancing stunt by Ardell will be a feature in itself and will be performed every afternoon and night. When this human daredevil balances himself many feet off the ground with only the support of a slender, bending pole, the thousands of people are expected to gasp in unison. The traditional balloon ascension will take place in the quarter stretch every afternoon and those hundreds who desire to watch a daredevil leap into space from thousands of feet up in the clouds, will not be disappointed. Extra balloons will be on hand to take care of any emergency, so that all flights will be carried out as scheduled.
Over two thousand dollars has been paid by the Association for these attractions with the hope of making attendance at the fair
worth while for every man, woman and child regardless of variation of interests.

Fine Race Program

The Morgan County Fair is expected to live up to its recently made reputation for horse racing and the program during the coming week will include some of the best race horses in the Country. Announcement of the entries has not yet been made by the Superintendent of speed, Scott B. Green, but from all information gathered the entries
will far surpass those of last year, both in number and quality, if such a thing is possible. Those who attended the recent races at the Morgan County Fair grounds have had an insight as to what sort of horse races Morgan county information has spread information has spread over the entire United States until the interest is becoming almost national in scope.

$2600 has been offered by the Association in race purses on an added money basis and every possible precaution is being taken to keep the track in perfect condition. Many of the race men who have been working out horses on the track during the past several weeks say that Morgan County has never seen an driving. It is expected that the great number of entries in the four days racing program will necessitate the preparation of additional quarters other than the two big barns, and such arrangements are being made by the Superintendent of the grounds. It is expected that an official announcement of the entries for the races will be made tomorrow by the superintendent of speed.

Special Days Will Feature

Thursday and Friday will feature the greatest homecoming
of former Morgan County residents in years and will be known as Homecoming days. Personal invitations have been sent to nearly a thousand former residents signed by our city leaders.
It is expected that several hundred of them will be accepted,
bringing back many to happy reunion with old friends. Upon arrival in the city a place of registration will be furnished for the homecomers and each will be presented with a homecomers badge upon which is engraved the words "Homecomer 1923,"
with an attached ribbon bearing in silver "Morgan County Fair."
Special attractions will be arranged for these visitors, during their visit in the old home town and a great effort will be made to demonstrate the great progress that Jacksonville has made during their absence.

On Friday the wounded veterans of foreign wars of the interne hospital here, will become the guests of the Association and are expected to march in a body to the grounds where they will be entertained royally
at the expense of the Association.

Wednesday will be Governor's day and a great hard roads
booster meeting will be a feature of the program. The guest of honor will be Governor Len Small, for whom an elaborate reception has been arranged by the committee in charge. It is not definitely stated as to whether the distinguished visitor will speak, or not, but rumors that if he should, the theme would be hard roads. Governors day is expected to be the big day at the Fair and the attendance is expected to reach the fifteen thousand mark, the greatest single gathering in the history of the county. A special box has been prepared for the honored guest in the grandstand.

On Thursday afternoon the business men of the city, who have co-operated in a very commendable manner to make the Fair a success, will close all business and spend an afternoon at the Exposition. The spirit that enters into this closing insures the public that the Fair has become of general interest to city and country people alike.

One of the features that goes to make this years fair a success is the hearty co-operation and endorsement on the part of both the farmers and the business men,
many of whom have offered both time and money freely. With this sort of spirit back of an event and the willful support of the newspapers, the Fair can be nothing but a complete success
in every and all ways.

METHODISTS PLAN FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Dr. E. L. Pletcher Attends Meeting of District Superintendents
in Springfield—News from Various Churches in Illinois Conference.

The district superintendents of the Illinois conference of the M.
E. church gathered in Springfield Thursday and made plans for the annual conference to be held next month in Champaign. Bishop Thomas Nicholson, the resident bishop of the Chicago Area, was at the meeting and was consulted by the superintendents on various matters pertaining to the annual conference.

Dr. E. L. Pletcher, the superintendent of the Jacksonville district, was one of those in attendance at the Springfield meeting. Dr. Pletcher has been exceedingly busy in the past several weeks, having held about half of the quarterly conferences
in his district for the final quarter.

Mr. Pletcher states that the salaries of ministers in his district are not to be reduced this year, in some cases advances are to be made.

Among ministers who have been invited to return to their charges at the same salary are Dr. A. A. Lucas, who has served the church at Havana, and Dr.
G. E. Scrimger, who has been unanimously invited to return to Petersburg. Rev. D. V. Gowdy, a former pastor of Centenary church in this city, has been asked to return to the church
at Virginia at the same salary
as last year.

Rev. Olin Lee has received an invitation to return to the church at Forest City, with a salary increase of $200.

Dr. Theodore Kemp, who has spent the past year touring Europe, expects to take a charge at the coming conference.

Rev. Ames Crawford has served five churches during the past conference year, the church at Borden being one of them. He has built a church at one of his country charges, having done all the work himself.

The Methodist church at Petersburg will today celebrate its silver anniversary. Bishop Joseph H. Hartzell will preach there this morning and Dr. Pletcher will address the young people at 7 o'clock this evening. Dr. Theodore Kemp, former president of Illinois Wesleyan University, will also deliver an address this evening. The church has been remodeled and redecorated in honor of the anniversary, the expense of the improvement program running to about $2,000.

This is one of the most enthralling, most exciting dramas in months. It is an epic of the great National Game—in which all the underlaying drama
of the game is expressed, as well as its comedy moments! It is the story of a girl's great love for a man who in the eyes of the world was an outcast

—until through the power of her love he was brought back to a position of honor in the eyes of millions!
It's a picture for the whole family—one of the best in a long time!

GOVERNOR PINCHOT
OF PENNSYLVANIA
TO MEET COAL MEN

nounced tonight that the United States coal commission had promised the assistance of H. G. Tyron, a wage statistics expert.
Plans Not Made
The form which the meetings next week will take have not been determined the governor said. The first session called for noon Monday will be held at the state capitol and it was indicated it probably will be an open meeting of both the operators' and miners' representatives who have taken part in the negotiations and to whom invitations were sent out today.
Replies from two of the operators—S. D. Warriner, chairman of the policy committee, and W. J. Richards—reached the governor within a few hours and press dispatches reporting the acceptance of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, gave him assurance the meeting would be held.

Forceful Facts Concerning the Interests of Former Soldiers Sailors and Marines.

The Star of David is the emblem placed on the graves of soldiers of Jewish faith.
The National Council for Prevention of War has 74 national organizations in the United States with a membership of more than 30,000,000 people.
Posts of the American Legion are being organized in Illinois, whose membership will be exclusively former service men who are trade unionists of that state.
John Coolidge, son of the President of the United States, is a "buck private" in the 1st Company, 1st Battalion, Citizens' Military Training Camp, at Camp Devens, Mass.

Only officers and enlisted men of the army, navy and Marine Corps, or civilians employed in the air service, are permitted to take flight in any of the United States navy planes.

The American War Mothers, a national organization of women who lost sons or daughters in the World War, are endeavoring to find in every state that particular mother who made the greatest sacrifice.

The army and navy are now in mourning in honor of their dead commander Warren G. Harding. On every ship and at every shore station and at every port and every army post throughout the country this rule will be observed for 30 days.

The altitude record for airplanes flight has been returned to France. Sadi Lecoq, under official French aviation supervision, recently flew 10,900 meters, or 6,773 miles after an hour and 20 minutes of climbing. This beats Lieutenant McCready's American record of 10,548 meters.

In France 7,447,297 acres of the 8,166,684 devastated acres of land have now been cleared of projectiles, trench work and barbed wire. 19,920 factories have been rebuilt out of 22,160. Of nearly 4,941,000 acres of devastated agricultural land, more than 1,235,000 have been put under the plow.

The United States army has a regiment of more than 700 cadets in Honolulu. Although it is composed almost entirely of young men of Japanese ancestry, every cadet is a loyal citizen of the United States. The regiment excels in drilling; it has its own band and a splendid drum and bugle corps.

Although General John J. Pershing is 63, he is the only commander of the armies in the World War who is still in active service. Unlike other army leaders—Foch, of France; Haig, of Great Britain; Diaz, of Italy and Hindenburg and Ludendorff, of Germany—General Pershing has been unwilling to retire and rest on his laurels.

The U. S. S. Colorado, now being completed at Camden, N. J., will be the first ship in the navy when it goes into commission. It will be equipped with electric drive machinery and a new type of tower bridge. The main battery of the warship will consist of eight 16-inch guns. It will have a complement of 45 officers and 1341 enlisted men, including 425 petty officers.

ATTEMPTED PARADE
OF KLAN RESULTS
IN SERIOUS FIGHT

ering all afternoon and evening Saturday for what is understood to have been a state meeting on a hillside overlooking Carnegie. Early in the evening their leaders were told, police said, that a parade thru Carnegie would not be permitted. About 11 o'clock, however, the parade was seen to appear over the hill and start toward the town. In order to enter it the Klansmen had to cross the Glendale bridge, which spanned a small creek. A crowd gathered at once at the bridge and stopped effectively blocking the structure.

An Impasse Reached
When the automobile leading the parade reached the bridge it stopped. The Klansmen immediately made no attempt to proceed and paid no attention to the cries to lower the American flag which headed the parade. Neither did they make any move to turn back.

After the impasse had existed for perhaps a half hour, the leaders of the marchers seized an opportune moment and made a wild dash forward. The automobiles were rolled off the bridge and the crowd stationed at one end swept backwards.

The parade continued for two blocks with only isolated instances of bricks and stones being hurled at the marchers. Then the opposing crowd seeming to have collected their forces rushed forward. Bedlam at once broke loose. All kinds of missiles were hurled thru the air and firing commenced.

STRANGE SEA MONSTER CAPTURED

London. (By the Associated Press)—A sea monster 36 feet long and weighing ten tons has been captured by fishermen off Calbreveen, County Kerry, says the Daily Chronicle. The monster has several fins and a large tail and was only captured after a six-hour struggle, during which several of the boats were upset and all the nets badly damaged.

Experts who have seen the animal say that it is impossible to classify it, but suggest it is allied to the tunny.

EXPERIMENTING IN OILS FOR ROADS

State Highway Department Testing Oils and Various Soils

SPRINGFIELD. (By the Associated Press)—Two experiments calculated to have a far reaching effect on the oiling of dirt roads in Illinois have just been begun by H. F. Clemmer, chief of engineering material for the state highway division, at Pana and Cambridge.

The purpose of the state is to find out what oils are best fitted for the various soils of Illinois preventing dust and washing out of roads by rain.

The two locations have been chosen for the tests because of the varied soils so that the greatest variety of effects may be determined. The location is believed to be of great importance, because of the effect of climatic conditions and soil in the life of an oil road.

At Cambridge, Henry county, the division of highways is trying to find out the effect of different oils on the same soil. At Pana, Christian county, it is trying to find out the effect of the same oil on different soils.

The Cambridge test road is about three miles long, and the one at Pana is about two and a half miles long. The division is making experiments on all the known varieties of commercial oils. Fourteen sections employing varying quantities of oil and numbers of treatments, varying from one quart a square yard applied at one application to one gallon a square yard applied at intervals throughout the season have been constructed.

Experimental Roads Open

Both of the experimental roads are now open and subject to normal traffic conditions. The Pana road is subject to only a moderate traffic whereas the Cambridge road carries heavy automobile traffic.

When the tests have been completed, according to Mr. Clemmer, the state division of highways hopes to gather data of value for the county and city officials of various parts of the state to aid them in getting the best results on unpaved tracts of highway.

Until recently officials have considered that oil was merely oil, Mr. Clemmer said. Any kind would do. When the results are available, the division can give expert advice to any locality as to the best way to treat dirt roads.

REVIVE CHANNEL SMUGGLING Deal. (By the Associated Press)

Smuggling traffic is being revived along the lonely stretches of Kent and Sussex coasts, according to sea-faring men.

Many years ago this and nearby ports were headquarters of cross-channel smugglers in brandy, lace and silks, and now the possibilities of big profits through depreciated French exchange and a reduction in strength of the coast-guards, has tempted many to take up this exciting work again.

ACTORS DEMAND DAILY PAY

London. (By the Associated Press)—Singers and actors in the countries affected by the slump in exchanges have adopted a new method of collecting their salaries. The artists now demand that they be paid at the conclusion of each day's work, and at the rate of exchange paid for seats that day.

The artists have refused to sign contracts, except on this basis, as they claim that the fluctuation of the exchange makes their salary practically nothing at the end of the month.

LATEST NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

MARK ARIE WON THE GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP EVENT

Champaign Sharpshooter Had 96 Score Out of 100 Targets

SOUTH SHORE COUNTRY CLUB, Chicago, Aug. 25.—Mark Arie of Champaign, Ill., who is world's champion at the traps until the 1924 Olympics, today stood at 23 yards distance handicap and won the Grand American Handicap event with a score of 96 out of 100 targets, which ended the six days shooting program here.

For the past 18 years the Illinois sharpshooter has tried to win the Grand American Handicap event but he never actually won the "sportsman's desire."

Back in 1917, Arie tied for the Grand American crown with C. H. Larson with a score of 98 but Larson won the shootoff.

In 1912 Arie was victor in the North American amateur championship at double targets and then in 1917 he won the singles title of North America, but probably his most successful achievement was the taking of the world's championship at the Olympic games.

Mark Arie also won the all-around championship of North America for carrying the best average thrust six days of shooting in the Grand American. His score was 957 out of 1,000 targets. In taking this event he won the governor's cup from Phil R. Miller, runner up this year and the Dallas, Texas, shooter who won last year over the Atlantic City traps with a score of 939. Miller shot a 91 from 23 yards today.

Second high winner in the Grand American Handicap event was Frank Hughes of Mobile, S. D., who also stood at 23 yards and popped 95 targets. These scores of the winner and runner-up were remarkable achievements from the 23 yard handicaps mark.

J. S. Frank of Worthington, Minn., who stood at 22 yards last year at Atlantic City to win the 1922 Grand American event with a score of 96 out of 100 today was placed at 23 yards, the scratch position and puffed only 88 out of 100.

Over 500 snipers were the star contestants in the finale of the six days shooting and a day which was near ideal made the shooting of the top notch variety.

A breeze swept past the traps from Lake Michigan. Guy Payne, Tulsa, Okla., ace in trapdoor stood at 23 yards and puffed 94 targets to tie three other shooters who stood three yards in front of him.

They were Adam Frahenhold, Chicago; E. M. Roush of Saskatchewan and Joe Dawson of Omaha, Neb.

A flock of North America's star sportsmen tied in the 93, 92, 91 and 90 class, among whom were expert nimrod specialists and some in the "dark horse" class.

C. D. Coburn, a topnotcher and therefore a scratch entrant came from Mechanicsburg, Ohio, to a score of 93, while J. H. McKee, an unknown in trapdoor last week packed his carpet bag and came to the Grand American from LaPayette, Ind., to equal Coburn at 93 from 19 yards.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—Chicago defeated Philadelphia in the third and deciding game of the series here today, 3 to 1. The Cubs scored two runs in the first inning off Ring. After this the game developed into a pitchers' battle between Ring and Keen. Ring gave way to a pinchhitter at the end of the eighth. Ring fanned 12 batters, every man on the Chicago team striking out at least once. In the ninth Grantham singled, went to second on a sacrifice, stole third and scored on a wild throw by Wilson. The steal boosted Grantham's total to 38 for the season and increases his lead over Carey of Pittsburgh for base stealing honors in the National League.

FIRPO ENTERTAINED BY JOPLIN BRUISER
Black Ghost of Joplin Enters Firpo's Training Camp and Gives Him Stiff Workout

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 25. (By the Associated Press)—Jeff Clarke, the black ghost of Joplin, Mo., stepped into the ring at Luis Angel Firpo's training camp today and gave the South American challenger for Jack Dempsey's title the stiffest and best workout he has had. The engagement lasted two rounds and was rough enough to keep a crowd of about 2,000 spectators shouting satisfaction.

The shiny head of the ghost bobbed around the Argentine and caused him to miss several heavy rights sent straight from the shoulder, but Jeff could not keep away all the time and was right soundly punched.

Firpo boxed, in addition two rounds each with Frank Koebel and Joe McCann, Koebel has developed a right punch with considerable power behind it and landed often on the Argentine's jaw but Luis Angel did not seem to be bothered anymore than he was by McCann's heavy swings into his mid-section.

In the morning Luis Angel went on the road for a short spell. He roughed around with Natalio Pera and McCann and ended the period with quarter mile race to breakfast. When the afternoon workout was finished Firpo displayed keen interest in the racing greyhounds quartered in the park where the training camp is pitched. One of the fleetest of the hounds had been named for him. Luis Angel watched this dog being schooled and indicated that he might buy him for a camp mascot.

The South American will do only light work tomorrow.

DEMPSEY GIVING HIS TRAINERS HARD WORK

Comes Dangerously Near to Knocking Out Two of Sparring Partners—Reveals Real Strength in Workouts

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 25. (By the Associated Press)—The power of Jack Dempsey's punches was revealed today when the heavyweight champion came dangerously near knocking out Jack Burke and George Godfrey, the two heavyweights in one of the roughest workouts in which the titleholder has engaged since establishing camp on the shores of Saratoga Lake, two weeks ago.

Falling into a clinch probably saved them from hitting the floor.

A marked improvement was noted in Dempsey's work. The champion exhibited good judgment of distance and impressive speed thru the six rounds. He was so eager for a strenuous workout that Manager Jack Kearns had to call a halt when Dempsey drove a punching bag from its moorings.

Budke Gets Reward
Jack Burke, who handed Dempsey a pasting with right hand punches yesterday received his reward today in the shape of a severe pummeling bordering on a knockout. In the first round Burke beat Dempsey to a couple of right hand leads and this apparently irritated the champion. When they squared off for the second round, Dempsey drove Burke in a corner and whipped over a left hook to the chin, a right to the head and another left to the jaw. Burke sagged to the ropes, but quickly recovered. With eyes flashing angrily and a snarl on his lips, Burke let punches fly with both hands until the smiling Dempsey trapped him into a clinch.

Godfrey, the first man to face Dempsey had a stormy session for two rounds in which he failed to connect solidly.

The giant negro was in retreat continually and within a few seconds blood was spouting from his mouth from vicious hooks and right swings.

Due to the lack of sparring partners, Jack Bernstein, junior lightweight champion was pressed into service for two rounds. Jack MacAuliffe, the Detroit heavyweight, expected in camp, has delayed his arrival until tomorrow or Monday.

THREE INJURED WHEN MACHINE TURNS OVER

Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alexander in Hospital as Result of Accident on Hard Road—Blindling Sun Believed to Have Caused Mishap.

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alexander, 149 Caldwell street, were injured, and the car in which the family were riding was completely wrecked when it turned turtle yesterday evening on the hard road east of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and Misses Grace, Alice and Mary Alexander were driving toward Jacksonville and had reached a point about a quarter of a mile east of the Wabash subway at Arnold. It appeared to occupants of a car following the Alexander machine that the driver lost control of the auto. It ran into the right bank at the side of the road, and then plunged across the road into the left bank and upset.

The driver of the other car, Mr. Armstrong, went to the assistance of the injured people and rushed the three girls to Our Saviour's hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander escaped uninjured. All three of the girls were badly cut and bruised about the body and face, their injuries resulting mainly from cuts by the broken glass of the sedan windows and windshield.

Miss Grace Alexander suffered a severe scalp wound. Miss Alice received a fracture of the collar bone. Miss Mary escaped with only some painful cuts about the body. All three young ladies are patients at the hospital, where they were attended by Dr. F. A. Norris. So far as is known, they suffered no internal injuries.

The Buick sedan, in which the Alexander family were riding, was a total wreck. Two wheels were broken, and the sedan body was smashed beyond repair. The machine was brought into town by men from Joy Brothers garage. They found it turned completely upside down at the side of the road.

Mr. Armstrong, who brought the injured people to Jacksonville, stated that the sun was shining directly into the eyes of car drivers going west on the hard road at the time of the accident, and probably caused Mr. Alexander to lose control of his car.

LITTLE LAD CAME NEAR DROWNING

Son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Moore Slipped into Deep Part of Elks' Pool Saturday

Junior Moore, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Moore, the father being associated with the management of the Loop cafe and cafeteria, had a very narrow escape from drowning at the Elks' pool about one o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The little fellow and a number of his companions were sailing boats in the pool when in some manner Junior slipped into the pool. Men who were on the first floor at the club heard the screams and Charles Gilbert, club custodian, and James Kennedy jumped into the pool without removing any of their clothing and found the boy lying on the bottom of the pool after he had sunk for the fourth time. Doctors Gregory, Frank and Obermeyer happened to be in the club at the time of the accident and by prompt and efficient work succeeded in reviving the boy. Fire Chief Hunt was called with the pulmotor, but by the time of his arrival the boy was so much improved that the pulmotor was not necessary.

The boy was taken to the home of his parents and it is believed that no serious results will be encountered on account of the accident.

RADIO SCHOOL TO BE ATTRACTION AT FAIR

Daily Instruction in the Science and Art of Radio to be Given at Fair This Week—Ed Wackerle and Claude Vail to be Instructors.

The Radio School of the Morgan County Fair will open Tuesday morning, August 28 at 9:00 o'clock. All students are requested to be present with note book, pencil and ruler. The course is entirely free to all and especially interesting to school children. Everything will be taught so that young children will have no difficulty in understanding it. The lectures will consist of demonstrations in electrical fundamentals, or rather an electrical review, leading up to the elements of Radio engineering.

Mr. L. E. Wackerle, who is a pioneer in Radio, will be in charge of the school. His experience dates back 19 years, when Marconi (a poor unknown man) was at the St. Louis World's fair. He on Claude Vail experimented in radio and were the first to send and receive radio signals in Jacksonville. He was also instrumental in organizing the Central Illinois Radio Club who put a wireless station on the Avers Bank Building, which was afterwards moved to the Illinois Woman's College, so that a special license could be procured for the station. At that time, 1916, there were only 82 special stations in the United States, mostly owned by colleges and universities. Some few of them were owned by individuals, such as Hiram Percy Maxim, John Hammond, Jr., Philip Edelman, Peter Cooper Hewitt, Paul F. Godley and others prominent to every radio enthusiast.

At the time of the war, Mr. Wackerle was appointed chief inspector of the Morgan County Signal School, to train men for the Signal Corps of the U. S. army.

Largely as the result of the war the Radio telephone has become very popular and millions of people enjoy radio and can listen in without any fundamental knowledge of the service at all. Half of the fun of Radio is in knowing the what and why; and after all it is comparatively simple if you start at the beginning.

So we are going to start at the beginning, way back 200 years B. C. when a shepherd named Magus leaned an ironed tipped shepherd's crook against a rock. But that is part of the Radio course. So come to the Radio school Tuesday at 9 a. m. Those who don't get a chance to register at the Chamber of Commerce may do so at the tent at that time.

STATE EXHIBIT SHOWN AT AURORA FAIR

Miss McRoy of State Hospital in Charge of Section of The Exhibit.

The official Illinois state educational exhibit was recently shown at the fair at Aurora. It is one of the five complete outfits which the state is sending to fairs to give instruction to agriculturists and cattle raisers and instruct the public generally with reference to health affairs. A motion picture was also given, showing the use of occupational therapy in state hospitals.

Free health examinations were given by physicians representing the department of health and by Aurora physicians. The Beacon News used the following paragraphs in referring to exhibits from state institutions located in Jacksonville:

Work of Blind and Insane
The department of public welfare is exhibiting a collection of woodwork, and embroidery which is the work of men and women in the state institutions. The specimens which come from asylums for the insane, blind and criminal of the state are remarkably well made. A collection of wood work is especially interesting. There is no fund with which to supply material for this work. The articles displayed are made entirely from bits of cast off burlap, wood, floss, and other things that ingenious minds have found a new use for. Miss Marie McRoy, director of occupational work at the state hospital at Jacksonville, is in charge of the exhibit.

A seven reel motion picture supplements this exhibit. The picture, "The Good Samaritan," shows Illinois in the role of the Samaritan in her treatment of the unfortunate of the state. It explains the use of occupational therapy in state institutions for the blind, criminal, and insane where the keeping them happily employed has proved successful.
